PLEA

GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea.  NOLO

GUILTY

FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Access Device Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1029(a)(2) as charged in the Single-Count Information.

JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $65,000.00 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $65,000.00 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be paid in monthly installments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater, during the term of probation. These payments shall begin 30 days after release from custody. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Tamara Yvette Jackson, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Information to the custody of Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 13 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from her person;
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation;
5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's mental health treatment during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer; and
7. The defendant shall not be self-employed nor shall the defendant be employed by relatives, unless approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant will not accept or begin employment without the prior approval of the Probation Officer and employment shall be subject to continuous review and verification by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall not work for cash and defendant's employment shall provide regular pay stubs with appropriate deductions for taxes.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon on September 19, 2011. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal located at United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, CA 92701-4516.

The Court strongly recommends that the Bureau of Prisons immediately conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide the defendant with the necessary treatment. The Court also strongly recommends that the defendant be housed in a low security facility in Southern California but this recommendation is not a priority over being housed at a facility that can provide the defendant with the necessary mental health treatment.

Defendant advised of her right to appeal.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
